RED WINES

MISCELLANEOUS REDS

	GLASS	BOTTLE
INDEPENDENT PRODUCERS, Merlot. Columbia Valley, WA 2004 Great rich fruit typical of a Columbia Valley Merlot. Truly delicious & juicy.	$8.00	$30.00
JOEL GOTT, Zinfandel. California 2005 Juicy black fruit and cherry with spicy flavors and a long sweet and juicy finish.		$36.00
CALCU. Colchagua, Chile 2004 (Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc & Carmenere) Lots of fruit, great structure but light on its feet and with a velvety texture. Oh my!		$32.00
HAZARD HILL, Shiraz. Western Australia 2004 Juicy and fleshy with great red berries flavors and a touch of spice.	$8.00	$30.00
RICARDO SANTOS, Malbec. Mendoza, Argentina 2005 The fruity & balanced side of the Malbec grape with just a touch of oak.		$28.00

PINOT NOIR

BABICH, Pinot Noir. Marlborough, New Zealand 2006 Light in color with fresh red berry aromas & refreshing fruit on the palate. Light bodied.	$10.00	$38.00
CRISTOM, Pinot Noir "Mount Jefferson". Willamette Valley, OR 2004 Wow! Too complex to go into details, but the nose is intense and exotic and there are lots of flavors of black fruit, spices, gaminess, toasted oak and vanilla... Beautiful.		$49.00
FIDDLEHEAD, Pinot Noir Cuvée 728. Santa Rita Hills, CA 2002 Silky. Aged 15 months in French oak, this shows whiffs of chocolate and tobacco.		$59.00
